

Chelsea Fontenel is a HOPE Hero

Chelsea Fontenel was born in Switzerland and has Caribbean roots. Her talent as a singer was highlighted when she took part in the “The Voice Kids 2013”. She is committed to using her profile and talents to help underprivileged children and those in need.

Besides music, Chelsea is also very interested in playing tennis, and is considered among the best in the junior team for Switzerland. She is also a keen student and is excelling academically through her dedication and support from her loving parents. She aspires to be the first professional singing champion tennis player in the world.

Chelsea has been supporting HOPE Cape Town since 2013 with her performance at the “HOPE Gala” in Dresden as well as the “Ball of HOPE” in Cape Town.
